References below to ‘you’ are to any individual participating in the project and to the organisation they are representing by participating in the project and anyone acting on behalf of the building owner whose data is submitted for the project.

You must adhere to the rules and principles set out in the Code of Conduct contained in our Welcome Pack. If you do not have a copy, please contact the Pilot Team at pilot-testing@nzcbuildings.co.uk

In particular, when receiving or sharing data you should understand and comply with the following provisions of the Code of Conduct:

- Adhere to the Chatham House Rule: participants in meetings, P2P Groups or any other aspect of the project are free to share insights and general takeaways externally but must not disclose the identities or affiliations of other participants without their explicit consent.
- Protection of Sensitive or Confidential Information: Please treat information shared by others with respect and (where appropriate) confidentiality. If information shared appears confidential, sensitive or proprietary then please treat it as such.
- Do not share Confidential Information: Please recognise that the P2P Groups and channels (and other activities of the project) are not monitored or policed and should not be used for sharing confidential, sensitive or proprietary information.

Participants share information at their own risk and UK Net Zero Carbon Buildings Standard Project Ltd cannot be held responsible for how other participants use it.

Any information shared with you as part of the pilot should be treated as confidential and should not be shared externally without the prior consent of the Pilot Testing Team. Please email pilot-testing@nzcbuildings.co.uk if you have any questions.

Any ‘personal information’ submitted to us through the project will be processed in accordance with our Privacy Notice available here. Please review that document for more information on how and why we collect, store, use and share personal data and your rights to control our use of it.
